ApHC ANNOUNCES 2016 HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

MOSCOW, Idaho— The Appaloosa Horse Club (ApHC) is pleased to announce the 2016 Hall of Fame Inductees. This prestigious honor is determined automatically by production/performance records or through a vote by the ApHC Board of Directors on nominated horses and people.

Please join the ApHC in congratulating the following 2016 Hall of Fame Inductees:

Horses

- The Secret - 2000 stallion sired by Dreamfinder and Kendalite N Roses, bred by Doug Schembri of Myakka City, FL. As a foal The Secret was syndicated following an injury and throughout his life produced many champion offspring.
- She's So Shy – (automatically inducted – earned a Bronze Supreme Dam Production Plaque in 2016) 1995 mare bred and owned by Wendy Shuknecht of Elba, New York.
- Way to My Heart – (automatically inducted – earned a Bronze Supreme Dam Production Plaque in 2016) 2002 mare bred by Rochelle Feuerstein of Buttonwillow, California, owned by Lewis and Marilyn Feuerstein of Creston, California.

The Appaloosa Hall of Fame was created in 1986 with a purpose of recognizing individuals and horses whose contributions have made an impressive and lasting impact on the industry as well as the ApHC. Each year ApHC membership submits nominations for individuals and horses they believe have made a great and favorable impact on the Appaloosa industry. The above inductees will be honored at the 2016 Year-End Awards Banquet held in conjunction with the 70th National Championship Appaloosa Show in Fort Worth, Texas. In addition, each Hall of Fame inductee will be recognized on an engraved plaque featuring a photograph and biography to be on permanent display in the Appaloosa Museum.

To purchase tickets for the 2016 Year-End Awards Banquet, contact Bailee Woolstenhulme, ApHC Awards Coordinator at (208) 882-5578 ext. 245. For information about the Appaloosa Museum please contact Crystal White at (208) 882-5578 ext. 279.

The Appaloosa Horse Club (ApHC) was established in 1938, with a mission of preserving, promoting and enhancing the Appaloosa breed. The ApHC has since registered more than 670,000 Appaloosas, which are known for their distinctive color, intelligence and even temperament. True to their reputation as an extremely versatile breed, Appaloosas can be found in nearly every discipline, including racing, endurance riding or serving as reliable family horses. The international breed registry is headquartered in Moscow, Idaho; the heart of the Palouse region, the Appaloosa breed's namesake and point of origin.
