Rule 601.U. All major livestock shows and state fairs that meet eligibility requirements as determined solely by the ApHC based upon the size, scope and marketing potential of the show or fair, will be allowed one double-judged, double-pointed show per year, which is defined as an eligible livestock show or state fair at which a maximum of two judges judge independently of each other at one show judging either concurrently or on different days; therefore requiring a show approval application listing both judges and requiring two separate sets of show results and two sets of judge's cards and at which exhibitors will receive two sets of points for each judge's placings. Each class may only be conducted once per each judge and each judge may only turn in one set of judge's cards for that show.

1. Show management shall collect point fees according to rule 601.T.2.g and shall not collect double fees nor submit double fees to the ApHC.
2. Show management shall pay the standard show approval fee of $25/judge for members or $50/judge for non-members. Shows that meet eligibility requirements shall not be required to pay double the approval fees.
