AYA ANNOUNCES 2014 SPEECH CONTEST WINNERS

Moscow, Idaho— The Appaloosa Youth Association (AYA) is pleased to announce the winners of the 2014 AYA Speech Contest. This exciting competition is held annually in conjunction with the Youth World Championship Appaloosa Show. Teams participating in the Team Tournament Challenge are required to enter into this competition, but individual youth participants are welcome and highly encouraged to take part. Participants can compete in one of two divisions: prepared and impromptu.

This year the topic for the 13 & under prepared division was “The First Appaloosa That I Met.” The topic for the prepared 14-18 division was “Appaloosa- Past, Present and Future.”

For the impromptu division of the contest participants under the age of 13 were asked what their Appaloosa has taught them. Participants between the ages of 14 and 18 taking part in the impromptu division were asked to speak about why the Appaloosa Youth Association is important to them.

Winners of this year’s competition each received a cash prize. This year’s competition was held on Saturday, June 28th. The AYA is pleased to announce the following winners:

The AYA Speech Contest was created to help encourage youth to develop their public speaking skills as well as to persuade youth to be aware of important topics that affect not only the Appaloosa breed, but the equine and agricultural industry as a whole. For more information on the AYA, this contest or the many other activities the AYA offers to youth visit www.appaloosayouth.com.

The Appaloosa Youth Association (AYA) is the youth affiliate of the Appaloosa Horse Club. Officially approved in 1981, the AYA was the first youth program developed to complement an equine breed association.
