APPALOOSA HORSE CLUB ANNOUNCES 2015 LIFETIME HORSE AWARD WINNERS

Moscow, Idaho— The Appaloosa Horse Club is pleased to announce the 2015 lifetime horse award winners. This year's award recipients include Youth Supreme Champion Horse, Open Supreme Champion Horse and the Bronze Production Plaque Awards.

The Youth Supreme Champion Horse is awarded when a horse has earned at least 100 points, with at least 30 points earned in halter classes and at least 70 points earned in performance classes. No more than 10 points can be from one performance class, and the horse must have at least one Register of Merit (ROM) in three separate categories. Please join us in congratulating the following 2015 Youth Supreme Champion Horse Award winners:

The Appaloosa Horse Club (ApHC) was established in 1938 with a mission of honoring the heritage and promoting the future of the Appaloosa horse. The ApHC has since registered more than 700,000 Appaloosas, which are known for their distinctive color, intelligence and even temperament. True to their reputation as an extremely versatile breed, Appaloosas can be found in nearly every discipline including racing, endurance riding and serving as reliable family horses. The international breed registry is headquartered in Moscow, Idaho, the heart of the Palouse region—the Appaloosa breed's namesake and point of origin.
