ARIZONA APPALOOSA ASSOCIATION NAMED YOUTH CLUB OF THE YEAR

MOSCOW, Idaho— The Appaloosa Horse Club (ApHC) would like to congratulate the Arizona Appaloosa Association on being named as the 2015 Youth Club of the Year! The Youth Club of the Year Competition was designed to promote a higher level of youth involvement in regional clubs. The ApHC would like to recognize the Wisconsin Appaloosa Youth Club as runner up in this year's competition.

To compete for this prestigious award, youth regional clubs must submit a scrapbook to the ApHC Office by March 1st of the following year to be considered. Scrapbook submissions should detail the various youth activities youth clubs have participated in during along with a completed entry form. "The Youth Club of the Year Award is such a great program. It's wonderful to see so many wonderful youth Appaloosa ambassadors in our membership" said a representative from this year's judging committee.

The ApHC would like to recognize all of the clubs who participated in this year's competition and commend them on their outstanding efforts in promoting the Appaloosa breed.

The Appaloosa Horse Club (ApHC) was established in 1938 with a mission of honoring the heritage and promoting the future of the Appaloosa horse. The ApHC has since registered more than 700,000 Appaloosas, which are known for their distinctive color, intelligence and even temperament. True to their reputation as an extremely versatile breed, Appaloosas can be found in nearly every discipline including racing, endurance riding and serving as reliable family horses. The international breed registry is headquartered in Moscow, Idaho, the heart of the Palouse region—the Appaloosa breed's namesake and point of origin.
