Appaloosa Horse Club Announces 2016 Race Champions

MOSCOW, Idaho— Each year a new crop of Appaloosa Race horses hit the track, and each year, outstanding champions emerge and are recognized by the Appaloosa Horse Club.

Appaloosa Racing's Horse of the Year award was bestowed to the bay gelding STAR POWER INTENT. This gelding found his stride in 2016, also earning titles as the Champion Three-Year-Old Gelding and Champion Claiming Horse with lifetime earnings of $41,349. STAR POWER INTENT is sired by the Appaloosa With Intent and out of the AQHA dam Power Buggy by Power Train. STAR POWER INTENT was bred by Daniel Grotheer from Kansas and is owned by Oscar Nunez of El Reno, Oklahoma. Our congratulations to everyone associated with this great horse.

The Appaloosa Horse Club is also pleased to recognize the outstanding COL BUCKS as the Supreme Champion Two-Year-Old and Champion Two-Year-Old Gelding. The dark bay gelding sired by the Quarter Horse PYC Paint Your Wagon and out of Appaloosa dam Joyball by Whirling Fastball, AQHA, earned $34,629 – the second highest for all Appaloosa starters in 2016 only behind Star Power Intent. COL BUCKS is owned and bred by race horse breeder Gary Vaughan of Coalgate, OK and trained by Luis Villafranco. Congratulations Gary and COL BUCKS!

The following Appaloosas earned prestigious titles for their racing prowess in 2016:

- Jess Cuz– Champion 2-year-old Filly
- Col Bucks - Champion 2-year-old Gelding
- Train Wreck - Champion 3-year-old Filly
- Star Power Intent - Champion 3-year-old Gelding
- Naughty at Night – Champion 4-year-old and older Mare
- KJ Cash - Champion 4-year-old and older Gelding
