

March 13, 2020

WCHA Offering Stakes Classes at the Pinto World Championship

Thackerville, OK— March 13, 2020 — The World Conformation Horse Association (WCHA) is very excited to announce a new collaboration with the Pinto Horse Association of America, Inc. (PtHA) and the Pinto World Championship Show (PWC) in June 2020.

“Branching out and joining forces with PtHA and Darrell Bilke is a wonderful opportunity for WCHA and our members,” explains Don Falcon, Executive Director of WCHA. “This collaboration allows for an additional venue in our mission to provide more and more WCHA classes for halter horse competition of all breeds.”

$2000 Added Monies: Eight Non-Pro WCHA Stakes Classes for Colored and Solid horses from Yearling through Aged Mares and Geldings. Classes scheduled for June 13th in Tulsa, OK in conjunction with the PWC.

The rules to participate in this full slate of Non-Pro/ Amateur Stakes Classes is simple

- Must be registered in PtHA Color or Solid registry
- Owner and exhibitor must be current PtHA members
- Owner and exhibitor must be current WCHA member
- Must enter the corresponding PtHA halter class
- $100 entry per class

Each Stakes Class will receive 80% of each entry fee back into the purse.

For more information regarding the WCHA Stakes Classes please contact WCHA or view all supporting documents such as entry forms PWC Premium Book visit the WCHA Web Site at www.conformationhorse.com

###