ApHC ANNOUNCES 2019 HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

MOSCOW, IDAHO — The Appaloosa Horse Club (ApHC) is pleased to announce the 2019 Hall of Fame Inductees. This prestigious honor is determined through a vote by the ApHC Board of Directors on nominated horses and people that have been reviewed and recommended by the Hall of Fame Committee, OR automatically by production/performance records.

Please join the ApHC in congratulating the following 2019 Hall of Fame Inductees:

People

- Dave & Kim Utke of Sheldon, North Dakota

Horses

- Downtothelastdetail – (automatically inducted) 2008 gelding bred by Jennifer Marcom of Whitesboro, Texas, currently owned by The Hulcher Family of Pilot Point, Texas.
- Mr Shining Gun – (automatically inducted) 2009 gelding bred by Dennis Herman of Maiden, North Carolina, currently owned by Jim Jirkovsky of Whitesboro, Texas.
- Jess Streakin – (Supreme Dam Production Plaque) 2004 mare bred and owned by Jeff Adams of Durant, Oklahoma.
- Heza Dreamer – 1994 stallion bred by Jim Wild of Sarcoxie, Missouri, last owned by Earl Steinert Jr. of Strafford, Missouri.
- High Sign Nugget – 1988 stallion bred by Wayne Collier of Wauchula, Florida, and last owned by Jim Dobler of Alberta, Canada.
- Zip’N To Paradise – 1989 stallion bred by Margaret Cotter of Whitewright, Texas, and last owned by Cheryl Pozzi of Edgewood, New Mexico.
- Hot Chocolate Chip – 1994 stallion bred by Jeri Lynn Ballard of Vale, North Carolina, and last owned by Arthur Juhrend of Lake Forest, Illinois.

More information on each of these horses and people will be uploaded soon to the Hall of Fame page on the ApHC website at <https://www.appaloosa.com/association/hof.htm>.

The Appaloosa Hall of Fame was created in 1986. Each year ApHC membership submits nominations for individuals and horses they believe have made a great and favorable impact on the Appaloosa industry. Each

Hall of Fame inductee will be recognized on an engraved plaque featuring a photograph and biography to be on permanent display in the Appaloosa Museum.

The Appaloosa Horse Club (ApHC) was established in 1938 with a mission of preserving, promoting and enhancing the Appaloosa breed. The ApHC has since registered more than 700,000 Appaloosas, which are known for their distinctive color, intelligence and even temperament. True to their reputation as an extremely versatile breed, Appaloosas can be found in nearly every discipline including racing, endurance riding and serving as reliable family horses. The international breed registry is headquartered in Moscow, Idaho, the heart of the Palouse region—the Appaloosa breed's namesake and point of origin.
