

Appaloosa Horse Club Announces Results of 2024 Membership Ballots

MOSCOW, Idaho — Results from the Appaloosa Horse Club (ApHC) Membership Vote were finalized as of Nov. 1, 2024. Agenda items on this year's ballot consisted of ApHC Board of Director elections and the selling of its main office.

Board of Directors were elected from each of the six ApHC territories and will begin their term of service on Jan. 1. Board of Directors elected include Richard Maggard (Territory I), Brent Woolery (Territory II), Nicholas Beil (Territory III), Sean Schembri (Territory IV), Theron McCammond (Territory V) and Lori Wunderlich (Territory VI). Each of these Board of Directors will serve a four-year term.

The proposal to sell the ApHC main office located in Moscow, Idaho passed with an 82.67% favorable vote. The ApHC will begin developing a relocation plan, and more details are to come.

The ApHC would like to extend its gratitude to each of its members for voting in this year's election. Congratulations to each of the newly elected Board of Directors.
